PROPERTY DESCRIPTION:

Come and see the Landmark of River Road, "The Stryker House." This majestic home has been meticulously cared for throughout the years and it shows. This European craftsmanship is strikingly noticeable from the road with its handcrafted stacked Langhorne Stone Exterior & its exquisite Italian Tile roof. The gracious walkway leads you to a one of a kind solid European style wood door with lead glass panels. The foyer greets you with the beauty of the marble floors and the sweeping handcrafted staircase with beautifully crafted banister and wrought iron spindles and marble steps, a feel and look that is unrivaled. To the right is the foyer is the grand living room with the hand hewn beams, large window overlooking the English Gardens, an enormous stone fireplace and leaded windows that grace the front lawn and view of the Delaware River. Thought the beautifully crafted wooden French doors is the quintessential sunporch with Mercer Tiles and french doors that open East to the front yard and West to the backyard and its raised stone patio, perfect for entertaining. The formal dining room is graciously elegant and has open views to the expansive front yard and riparian rights to the river as well. The dining room is serviced to the kitchen which has beautiful DBS Cabinetry, double ovens, subzero fridge, granite counters an island, glass shelving and a cozy table for gathering. Off the kitchen is a family room with exposed stone walls, wood burning fireplace, with hidden closets and half bath as well. Glass french doors accent the end of the rooms and access the driveway. Enter the upstairs from the stately marble staircase and cozy and elegant landing. On either end of the house there are two master bedrooms with their own private master baths. Both large and drenched with sunlight and astounding views, one bath is within keeping to the age of this home with its gorgeous and precious Mercer Tile and the other is timelessly elegant with Carrara Marble, Clawfoot soaking tub, and heated flooring. There are two other bedrooms, one in the front of the house with River views
